

Reggie Tyler, Ed.D

Dr. Reginald Tyler is an organizational development strategist with more than 35 years of significantly increasing levels of executive and senior level consulting and training interventions. Dr. Tyler has also been a certified trainer for Situational Leadership for almost 20 years. Reggie, as he likes to be called, has worked with many large organizations on extensive projects around talent development, values and change. He helps move organizations from just talking about what is important to driving business results. His major focus for organizations is the implementation of the changes required to truly deliver the results expected of the executive team. He is experienced, dynamic and bottom line focused.

Dr. Tyler earned his B.S., Business from Virginia Tech. He also holds an M.S, Business from VCU and an Ed. D., Leadership and Administration from Nova Southeastern University.

He and his wife, Joyce, reside in Roanoke.

Del. Glenn Oder

Glenn Oder is a lifelong resident of Newport News and a graduate of Virginia Tech where he received a Bachelor's Degree in Landscape Architecture. During the mid to late 1990s, he served five years on the Newport News Planning Commission and in 1998, Glenn was elected President of the Peninsula Housing and Builders Assoc. From 1999 to 2001, he served as the Principal Deputy Director for the Virginia Department of Housing and Community Development. Glenn Oder just completed his eighth year in the Virginia General Assembly where he serves on the Transportation, the General Laws, and the County, Cities, and Towns Committees.

Glenn and his wife, Mary, are the parents of three daughters.

ABOUT IAAP

For over 60 years, the International Association of Administrative Professionals has been helping office professionals reach their career goals through education, community building and leadership development. Our certification programs are recognized as the industry standard of proficiency. Our educational programs, including OPTIONS Training, help admins advance their careers without putting their life on hold. With three annual conferences a year, members have numerous opportunities to learn and grow, not just at their job but in their life. We produce five different publications that go out to our members, which impart cutting-edge information about today's office.

If you've been searching for a community to help you thrive in today's office culture, you've come to the right place. Come join us as we create a better workplace, one admin at a time. Visit us at www.iaap-hq.org/

Change: What seems to be a pre-dominate sign of the times: Attend this dynamic, informative, fun, and current look at how the "future shock" prediction of rapid change is our new norm! Experience first-hand the impact of change and then discover ways to address and adapt positively to what we are facing in 2010!

Values: What is the substance of who we are at work? The combined and sometimes conflicting values of our personal and work lives. In this session you will be challenged to grow as a professional. Growth requires information and insight so that we can improve/enhance who we are in the workplace. This session is not for the timid - it demands your assessment of you and where you want to go in your career!
